

Kyle Ray Designer Bio

Kyle Ray is an interior designer who started practice in 2013. His 20+ year background in custom theater design, strength in construction management, and passion for art led him back to school to train in design and architecture in 2011. Kyle specializes in the Modern Luxe Neoclassical style and has a flair for unique touches and statement spaces. His organized process and recognizable simplicity in communicating a vision are the hallmarks of his designs. Although beginning in Davidson, Kyle moved the business to the lovely Dilworth community to better serve his cliental.

Past and current memberships and recognitions include IDS (where he serves on the board), ASID, CEDIA, IES, NARI, AIA, and various others.

Kyle is from Atlanta, GA and moved to Charlotte in 2001. He holds an undergrad in Business Management from Georgia State University. He and his wife live with their 2 Miniature Schnauzers, Betty and Chloe, and love spending time with their 6 adult children and 2 grandchildren. They enjoy travel, good art, good food, and good music. Kyle's wife, Melissa, is currently studying Interior Design and will soon join the ranks – forming a dynamic design duo.
